Allocation for women health programmes

2730. SHRI M.V. RAJASEKHARAN: Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) the budgetary allocations for women's health programmes, State-wise; and

(b) the guidelines and effective steps taken to utilize the Central funds for the health services?

THE MINISTER OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRIMATI SUSHMA SWARAJ): (a) The national programmes and various schemes of the Department of Health are for the benefit of all the population including men and women. The schemes of Department of Family Welfare particularly focus on women and children. The State-wise allocation is made only for the schemes on infrastructure maintenance, through which family welfare services are delivered. The State-wise allocation for the year 2003-04 for infrastructure maintenance is given in the Statement enclosed. (See below).

Some of the specific schemes for women's health are National Maternity Benefit Schemes (NMBS), Supply of Dai Kits, Dai Training, 24 Hour Delivery, Operationalising First Referral Units (FRUs) for Emergency Obstetric & Neo-natal Care, etc. No State-wise allocation is made for these schemes and the releases are made on the basis of the projected requirements.

(b) States are frequently advised to utilise the funds only for the approved components of the schemes, keep proper records of expenditure, not to divert funds to other schemes, and to submit utilization certificate/audited statement of expenditure for the funds released.
